Hungarian Wine Tasting

We have selected seven unique wines, nurtured by Hungary's rich nature and diverse soils.

Please savor the distinct colors, aromas and flavors of each as you discover the charm of Hungarian wine.

① Sparkling Wine

Tokaj Brut

Grapes: 100% furmint

16,000 yen

A refreshing sparkling wine made from 100% furmint, Hungary's signature white grape variety. It features crisp, well-structured acidity paired with fruity notes of cherry and pear, complemented by subtle hints of sweet confectionery and vanilla. Adorned with an elegant floral label, it's a popular choice for celebrations and gifts.

② Dry White Wine

Dry Tokaj

Grapes: 70% furmint,
30% hárslevelű

10,000 yen

A signature wine representing Bodrog. It features fresh, crisp acidity alongside deep, sweet and complex aromas of apple, quince, peach and fragrant osmanthus. With a long finish and distinct minerality, this beloved bottle encapsulates the true charm of the Tokaj style.

③ Sparkling Wine

Tokaji "Halas" Furmint

Grapes: 100% furmint

13,000 yen

A premium furmint cultivated in the prestigious Haras vineyard. Please enjoy the rich bounties of the earth, drawn up through roots extending more than 40 meters deep, alongside the profound flavor of "time" nurtured by old vines.

④ Rosé Wine

Rose

Grapes: 64% kékfrankos,
20% pinot noir,
16% portugieser

6,800 yen

A light-bodied rosé crafted with a base of kékfrankos, Hungary's signature red grape variety. It evokes the traditional, charming, and silky blumenwein (flower wine) schiller, as well as the iconic rosé wines of Bandol, Provence.

⑤ Full-bodied Red Wine

Merlot

Grapes: 100% merlot

10,000 yen

Under the climate of Villány, merlot achieves full ripeness every year. While typically used as part of a blend, it demonstrates a truly captivating flavor even as a single-variety wine.

⑥ Full-bodied Red Wine

Principium

Grapes:
72% cabernet franc,
28% cabernet sauvignon

11,000 yen

A bottle that truly embodies the DNA of Villány. Fruity yet full-bodied, it offers warmth alongside a velvety smoothness, beautifully combining earthy nuances with spicy flavors.

Noble Rot Wine

Please enjoy the noble rot wines of Hungary's Tokaj region — one of the world's oldest and most historic dessert wines, counted among the top three noble rot wines in the world and famously favored by Louis XIV.

7 Noble Rot Wine: Very Sweet

Tokaji Furmint “Mesés”

Grapes: 100% furmint

13,200 yen

In Hungarian, "mesés" means "fabulous." Confidently named, this bottle is the winery's top recommendation. Harvested in mid-October, it concentrates the freshness and sweetness of fully ripened furmint. With subtle oak notes, it presents a harmonious balance between acidity and sweetness. Perfect as an aperitif or dessert wine, its stylish 500 ml slender bottle makes it an elegant choice for a cherished gift.

What is Noble Rot Wine?

Noble rot wine is a naturally sweet wine made from grapes with an exceptionally high sugar concentration, known as noble rot grapes. Characterized by a heady aroma and a rich, profound sweetness, it offers an elegant taste with a beautiful harmony of vibrant acidity and sweetness.

When fully ripened grapes are affected by a beneficial fungus called Botrytis cinerea (noble rot), its microscopic threads puncture the grape skin, allowing water to evaporate. As the grapes shrivel on the vine like natural dried fruit, their sugars, flavors, and acidity become highly concentrated.

Because these noble rot grapes contain an extraordinary amount of sugar, the yeast cannot convert all of it into alcohol during fermentation. This leaves a naturally rich, dense sweetness, creating a dessert wine that combines exquisite aromas, deep flavors and refreshing acidity.
